Article X - Standing Rules

Standing rules may be approved by the Executive Board, and the Secretary shall keep a record of the standing rules for future reference.

Article XI - Dissolution

The organization may be dissolved with previous notice and a two-thirds vote of those present at a special meeting called in order to dissolve. Should the EPPG disband, all monies will be held for a period of two years from the date of the last EPPG meeting. If two years lapse with no Eagle Point Parent Group activity, the EPPG would pay outstanding bills and Executive Board approved activities. Any remaining funds will be transferred to Eagle Point Elementary School or its successors to be used toward the benefit of the students at the discretion of the Principal.

Article XII - Amendments

These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meeting, providing that previous notice was given in writing at the prior meeting and sent to all members of the organization by the Secretary. Notice may be given by e-mail or other electronic communication. Amendments will be approved by a two-thirds vote of those present.

Article XIII - Indemnification

The Non-Profit Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Non-Profit Corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was serving at the request of the Non-Profit Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Non-Profit Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe the conduct was lawful and no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

Indemnification hereunder shall be made only upon a determination in the specific case that indemnification is proper under the substantive standards established hereunder. Such determination shall be made by the Executive Board by a majority vote consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding.
