From Principal Shawn Bromeland:

We have a busy couple of weeks coming up at Eagle Point. Tomorrow night, Saturday the 24th, our amazing Parent Group is hosting the Spooktacular Ball Drive Thru from 6:00 - 8:00 pm. This is always a fun and well attended event, and we're glad to have the opportunity for an activity that allows both our Hybrid and Distance Learners to participate. The Parent Group can still use some help with setup and clean up. If you're available to lend a hand please click here.

Next week we will hold Family Conferences via Zoom meetings. If you haven't already, please reach out to your student's teacher for a link to sign up for a time. Remember there is no school on Wednesday, October 28th due to conferences.

We will also hold a virtual Scholastic Book Fair to coincide with conferences. Starting on Monday the 26th, you can log on to the Eagle Point Book Fair homepage to browse many of the same books and items that are available during the in person Book Fairs. Orders will be shipped directly to your home, and Eagle Point receives a percentage of sales to support our classrooms. I encourage you to read with your students every day. It is such an important component to their learning at school, and a wonderful way to connect as a family.

And finally, remember we do not have school on Tuesday, November 3rd due to Staff Development. Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy the Spooktacular Ball Drive Thru!
